

Lodging

Inclusion of any accommodations mentioned – or linked to – on this web page does not imply endorsement by Washington University School of Medicine.

If you are a visitor from outside the St. Louis metropolitan area and your family member needs inpatient care, there are many lodging options available. This web page will provide information and links to help you find accommodations meeting your budget and other needs.

Barnes-Jewish Hospital

On-campus lodgings at Barnes-Jewish Hospital are available at the Parkway Hotel and Barnes Lodge.

Parkway Hotel

4550 Forest Park Blvd.
St. Louis, MO 63108
(314) 256-7777 or toll-free (866) 314-7700
reservations@theparkwayhotel.com
<http://www.theparkwayhotel.com>

The 220-room hotel is located a block east of the Center for Advanced Medicine on Forest Park Boulevard, providing access to the campus for medical center visitors, patients and their families. The hotel offers concierge suites on its two top floors.

For room rates, call the toll-free or local number listed above.

Click here for a full list of off-campus hotels.

---

Barnes Lodge

4520 Clayton Avenue
St. Louis, MO 63110
(314) 652-4319 or toll-free (800) 551-3492

Barnes Lodge is a hospitality house operated by Barnes-Jewish Hospital to provide lodging services for patients and their family members who live at least 50 miles outside of the St. Louis area.

Lodging services at Barnes Lodge can be accessed by calling the toll-free or local number listed above. While reservations are not accepted, a waiting list for each day is maintained and every effort is made by staff to accommodate each person on the list. In the event there are no vacancies at Barnes Lodge, the hospital's lodging representative will assist with other lodging arrangements.